

Transparent framework

This section summarises our philosophy. Our customers and their implementation partners receive the same transparent insight into our development methods as our employees.

We believe that transparency increases productivity and we inform our customers actively and openly about any changes / further developments and at any time about the status of the project.

Sample of a Kanban Board:

